

Donor Privacy Statement
Our Commitment to our Donors

Muncie Mission Ministries will not sell, share or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

Muncie Mission Ministries is committed to respecting the privacy rights of all our supporters. To accomplish this, we commit to the following:

1. We seek and record only the information that is relevant to the programs of the organization.
2. Our donor files will not be exchanged with, given to, sold to or rented to any other organization.
3. Information on our donors (i.e. our mailing list or giving records) is only given to persons who need such information to perform their assigned duties for Muncie Mission Ministries. This includes companies who prepare mailings, analyze and append data or other uses related to the fulfillment of Muncie Mission Ministries purposes.

It is our desire to not send unwanted mail to our donors. Please contact us if you wish to be removed from our mailing list.

If you have comments or questions about our donor privacy statement, please email us at bscott@munciemission.org or call us at (765) 288-9122 ext. 107.
